

The Educators Professional Liability Plan Solution

These days, even the best educators are vulnerable to lawsuits. Even a frivolous lawsuit is expensive to defend and can be more costly if a settlement or judgment is involved. But you can protect your career and personal assets with the Educators Professional Liability Plan. This plan assures you will have expert representation and a financial safety net if you're the subject of a work-related lawsuit.

Examples of professional liability lawsuits & claims

1

On a field trip, a student disobeyed instructions, left the group, fell and was injured. His parents sued the teachers who led the trip, alleging improper supervision.

2

A teacher who accused an aide of insubordination was sued by the aide for false accusations that led to termination of the aide.

3

A high school teacher removed a student from class for making an inappropriate comment during the school's anti-bullying day. The student sued the teacher for allegedly violating his right of free speech.

4

The parents of a high school student sued his teacher, principal and superintendent, alleging damage to their son's academic reputation and college prospects because the teacher would not allow him to make up a missed assignment and gave him a grade of C+ in the course.

Features:

- Liability protection up to $1 million per claim for damages arising from professional liability lawsuits.
